Such an employee shall pay to the Employer the amount of the jury or witness fees, excluding meal and mileage allowance, and shall be paid for their standard scheduled hours for such absence at their basic hourly rate of pay.

Union Leave

- 18.04 Union leave shall be granted, upon request, for the purpose of carrying out Union business. Such leave shall be in accordance with the terms and conditions set out in this Article.
- 18.05 Union leave shall be granted to representatives of the Bargaining Unit for the purpose of carrying out Union business for a combined total of up to ten (10) days per year. The Union and University may mutually agree to increase the number of days available to Bargaining Unit members under this Article. It is understood by the parties that such leave is exclusive of other union leaves outlined in this Article. To make use of this leave the President of the Bargaining Unit shall make a written request to the appropriate supervisor and Human Resources for individual Bargaining Unit representatives. Such request shall be made as soon as possible and not later than two (2) weeks prior to the commencement of the planned leave. The Bargaining Unit shall reimburse the Employer for the wages of such member(s) while on leave as outlined in 18.05.
- 18.06 For the purpose of 18.05 there shall be a maximum of two (2) members on leave at any one time.
- 18.07 Union leave shall be granted to representatives on University joint committees which meet during the normal workday of the member. Such leave shall not be deducted from the days outlined in 18.05. There shall be no reimbursement to the University for members attending such meetings.
- 18.08 Any employee elected, employed, or appointed to a position in the Union is entitled to a renewable unpaid leave of up to one (1) year. The return to work date will be determined through discussion with all parties in order to minimize any disruption to operational requirements and student experience. For the purpose of this clause, the Union shall include the local executive, the Canadian Labour Congress, the Ontario Federation of Labour, and the Ontario Division or the National body of the Canadian Union of Public Employees. Members shall continue to accrue seniority while on Leave under Article 18.08. If a leave is to be taken under 18.08, the Union shall normally provide at least sixty (60) days' notice to the University. It is understood that due to unforeseen circumstances, the Union may not be able to provide sixty (60) days' notice. In these cases, the Union may request a shorter notice period and such requests shall not be unreasonably denied.
- 18.09 At the end of the period of leave granted in 18.08 the member shall return to the same position held prior to the leave, if it still exists, or to a similar position that may be available following the procedure outlined in Article 24, Layoff and Recall.

Religious Holidays

- 18.10 The Parties are cognizant of the fact that some employees may, for reasons based on creed and in accordance with the Ontario Human Rights Code, wish to observe religious holidays that are not identified as Paid Holidays under this Collective Agreement. In such cases, the employee shall be entitled to observe such alternate holidays under the following conditions:
- a. The holiday may be observed as an unpaid day, however, the employee may arrange to use vacation or lieu time, or arrange with their supervisor to make up any time lost as a result of observing the holiday.
 - b. The employee shall be required to provide their supervisor with reasonable written notice of their intent to observe the holiday and must ensure that adequate arrangements have been made with their supervisor prior to the holiday.

Sick Leave

- 18.11 The Parties are committed to participate and cooperate in a respectful, timely, and safe return to work process with respect to short- and long-term disability leaves.
- 18.12 It is understood that not all illnesses and injuries require an employee to be absent from work. However, if an employee is unable to attend work as a result of their illness or injury, they shall be entitled to regular earnings and benefits for up to 105 calendar days per illness/injury. These days are intended to allow a member's regular earnings and benefits to continue until the member is able to return to work, or until the member becomes eligible to apply for LTD benefits, whichever occurs first. Employees shall provide appropriate medical documentation to support their absence within ten (10) calendar days. This time frame may be extended upon mutual agreement between the employee in question and the University. Extensions will not be unreasonably denied.
- 18.13 The member shall inform their supervisor as soon as possible of their absence due to illness so adequate arrangements can be made to fulfill the member's duties. It is understood that members should make every reasonable effort to contact their supervisor directly as per departmental procedures in the event they cannot attend work due to illness; however, it is also understood that this may not be possible in every instance. In these cases, the member should make other arrangements to notify their supervisor in an appropriate manner.
- 18.14 For absences of three (3) days or more, or when a member is absent repeatedly over a period of time, the Employer may, with reasonable notice, request the member provide an acceptable medical certificate stating to the extent possible the impact on the individual's ability to perform their duties. If there is a charge for obtaining the medical certificate, the Employer shall reimburse the employee for such cost.

18.15 In the event the member remains unable to perform their duties and attend work as a result of illness or injury after 105 calendar days, they are eligible to apply for benefits in accordance with the provisions of the Long-Term Disability Plan.

Personal Leaves of Absence

18.16 Unpaid leaves of absence of up to one (1) year may be granted to members of the Bargaining Unit for a variety of reasons such as educational leave, extended vacation time, extended parental leave, child or elder care needs, or other personal reasons. This leave may be granted to members under the following conditions.

- a. The leave must be requested in writing to the supervisor with a copy to Human Resources.
- b. The written request must include the start and expected return date of the leave as well as the reason for the leave.
- c. Members shall give at least sixty (60) calendar days prior written notice for a leave of more than two (2) weeks, and at least thirty (30) calendar days prior written notice for a leave of two (2) weeks or less, except in cases where the member cannot reasonably anticipate the need for the leave in these cases the member shall provide as much notice as possible prior to the requested commencement of the leave.
- d. Normally, personal leaves of absence intended to extend vacation by twenty (20) working days or less will be dealt with through Voluntary Reduction (see Article 21.08); however, the Employer will consider these requests in the context of a personal leave of absence in exceptional and extenuating circumstances.
- e. Members may apply for an unpaid personal leave of absence from their position to accept a temporary non-bargaining unit position at Brock University for a period of one (1) year or less. If the position is converted to a permanent position and/or the member accepts an ongoing position during the leave, the member will be deemed to have resigned and their seniority shall be terminated. Employees who accept alternate employment outside of the University during their leave shall have their seniority terminated.
- f. The member may continue benefits coverage during the leave by reimbursing the University for the cost of benefits coverage during the leave.

- g. Except in exceptional or extenuating circumstances, leaves shall not be renewed or extended.
- h. Leaves under this Article shall be granted at the sole discretion of the University. The University shall not unreasonably deny a request for such leave, but may do so for reasons including the operational needs of the University or an inability to reasonably accommodate the leave. It is understood by the Parties that a leave that appears to be requested continually for the same time period each year (e.g., the whole summer) may be denied as an unreasonable request.

Miscellaneous Leaves

18.17 The University shall grant a leave of absence with pay and without loss of benefits for one (1) working day to attend the post-secondary graduation of the member's or member's spouse's child.

Family Responsibility Leave

18.18 The purpose of this leave is to assist members with balancing their family and work responsibilities. The following conditions apply to the use of this leave:

- b. The operational requirements of the University must be met; however, it is recognized that effort will be required to accommodate requests for Family Responsibility Leave. Leaves will be approved unless precluded by operational requirements.

- d. The Leave must be used in blocks of time not less than one (1) hour.

- f. Family Responsibility Leave is available on a "borrow" basis and will be repaid by mutual agreement between the member and the supervisor. Time taken can be repaid by, for example, working shortened lunch breaks, starting work earlier, or working late.
- g. Unused Family Responsibility Leave will not accumulate from one year to the next if not used.

- h. Any outstanding time owing must be repaid by March 1st of the year following the year that the Leave is taken.
- i. In addition to Family Responsibility Leave, a member may apply for an unpaid leave of absence (Article 18.16) to accommodate their family responsibilities.

- 19.12 The Union shall be notified of return-to-work meetings between a member of the Bargaining Unit and the Employer. 21.14 Carryover of accumulated overtime may be necessary under exceptional circumstances. In the event that overtime has to be carried forward into the next calendar year, the immediate supervisor's written approval is required.

21.15 Approval from an appropriate supervisor must be obtained before any overtime work can be undertaken by a member of the Bargaining Unit.

Article 22 - Professional Development

- 22.01 The Parties recognize the importance of a well-trained workforce and acknowledge the organizational and individual benefits to be obtained through learning, skills training, and professional development. The Parties recognize their joint responsibility in and commitment to active participation in the area of learning, skills training, and professional development.
- 22.02 The University recognizes its responsibility to ensure members of the Bargaining Unit have the necessary skills and are provided with any necessary training, that may be required to perform the duties and responsibilities of their position as required by the Employer.
- 22.03 The Parties recognize that, in addition to skills training, other forms of professional development may benefit both the member and the Employer. Professional Development is defined as learning and development opportunities offered through the University and the Union, including but not limited to: formal academic programs; short-term continuing education activities; certification or recertification programs; (e.g., CPR or Mental Health First Aid); independent learning; training initiatives offered through Human Resources, or through the Union; and University committee participation.
- 22.04 In addition to recognizing the importance of learning, skills training, and professional development opportunities, the Parties also recognize that the Employer has service and operational needs that must continue to be met. To that end, the Parties agree as follows:
- a. The Parties recognize that not all professional development opportunities offered through the University are directly related to the assigned duties and responsibilities of a Bargaining Unit member's position; however, it may still be possible for a member of the Bargaining Unit to participate in these opportunities by arranging for a flex-time schedule (Article 21.07) and/or a personal leave of absence consistent with this collective agreement;
 - b. The Parties recognize that departments have an obligation to provide the highest level of service possible to students. Any request related to a member's involvement in a learning, skills training, and/or professional development opportunity must consider this obligation and may be denied by the Employer if service is adversely affected;

- c. Requests to be involved in learning, skills training and professional development opportunities shall not be unreasonably denied by the Employer.

22.05 The Employer agrees to consult with the Union prior to determining the training opportunities to be offered through Human Resources each year.

22.06 The University will maintain a professional development fund for members of the bargaining unit. Professional development funds may be used for legitimate skill development opportunities (such as conference presentations, attendance at conferences, workshops, training opportunities, etc.) and resources (such as subscriptions to relevant journals, purchase of books, or other resources related to assigned work). It is understood that any materials or resources purchased with this fund remain the property of the University.

The allocation of specific funding amounts provided to members will be based on the available funding and will not exceed $865 per member per year (May to April) without the agreement of the University. The member will submit requests for funding, including a supporting rationale, to their supervisor. Expenditures will only be made with the approval of the University. Approval of expenditures in accordance with this article will not be unreasonably denied.

Article 24 - Layoff and Recall

24.01 A layoff is defined as the elimination of a Bargaining Unit position or an ongoing reduction in regularly scheduled hours of work for a Bargaining Unit position. For the purpose of this Article "ongoing reduction" shall be defined as a reduction in hours for more than one (1) month in a twelve (12) month period.

24.02 The provisions of this Article shall not apply in the following situations:

- a. When an employee's appointment is for a limited duration of two (2) years or less and the appointment expires and is not renewed;

- b. When a seasonal employee is laid-off for the portion of the year in which they are normally not employed.
- 24.03 In the event of layoffs, the University will identify the affected Bargaining Unit position(s) to the Bargaining Unit and the affected member(s) in writing. The Parties shall meet in advance of the layoff(s) to discuss options to minimize the impact of the layoffs and bumping. If the Parties do not agree the University shall have the right to layoff the affected member(s) and follow the provisions of Article 24.04.
- 24.04 Members who are laid off will be given the following opportunities in the following order:
- a. The affected member will be given a preference in hiring over external candidates for any Bargaining Unit position posted at the time of layoff for which the affected member is qualified. The Employer may utilize a qualified member on layoff to temporarily fill a vacancy during the posting process;
 - b. If there is no such position available, the affected member will be entitled to bump the most junior Bargaining Unit member who holds a Bargaining Unit position for which the affected member is qualified;
 - c. If there is no other Bargaining Unit member who is junior to the affected member and who holds a position for which the affected member is qualified, the affected member will be given a preference in hiring for any Bargaining Unit position that is subsequently posted and for which the affected member is qualified. It is understood that the provisions of Article 24.04 (c) shall only apply while the affected member maintains rights of recall (see Article 24.07)
- 24.05 A member who has been laid off and unwilling to displace another member shall be entitled to rights of recall in accordance with Article 24.07.
- 24.06 A member who is to be laid off shall be given notice as set out in the Employment Standards Act. The University may elect to pay an amount equivalent to the notice period in lieu of notice.
- 24.07 Members who have been laid off or bumped shall have the right to be recalled for twenty-four (24) months from the date of layoff.
- 24.08 When providing notice of recall, the University will send such notice to the affected employee(s) via email with a copy to the local Union President and the Vice President of the bargaining unit. The member is required to ensure the Employer has their correct contact information on file.

- 24.09 Members who maintain rights of recall and accept a permanent position at the University shall lose their rights of recall.
- 24.10 If a member's recall rights expire in accordance with Article 24.07 the University will pay severance in accordance with the Employment Standards Act.
- 24.11 Members who are declared surplus and, as a result, assume a position in a lower job group shall have their salary adjusted as follows:
- a. If the member's current salary is greater than the range maximum for the new position their current salary shall be red-circled (i.e. maintained at the current rate) for a period of up to one (1) year. After a one (1) year period, the member's salary shall be reduced to the range maximum for the position they acquired through the layoff process.
 - b. If the member's current salary is less than or equal to the range maximum for the new position their current salary shall be maintained and they shall progress on the salary grid for the new position they acquired through the layoff process in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

Article 25 - Job Performance Appraisal

- 25.01 Performance appraisal is intended to be a culmination and confirmation of discussions that have taken place between the supervisor and the employee throughout the preceding period. Performance appraisals may be used by the University to make decisions related, but not limited to: promotion, demotion, discipline, and hiring.
- 25.02 All performance appraisals shall be made in writing and signed by the evaluator, with a copy being sent to the employee. The written appraisal shall be made available to the employee at the earliest possible opportunity.
- 25.03 A formal performance appraisal shall be conducted once per year for employees who have completed their probationary period. Formal performance appraisals shall be completed before the end of June each year.
- 25.04 Probationary employees shall have a formal performance appraisal halfway through their initial probationary period, as well as just prior to the end of their probationary period.
- 25.05 Unless otherwise mutually agreed, supervisors shall provide at least five (5) days' notice to the employee prior to any formal performance appraisal and encourage the employee to provide a written summary of their work performance over the preceding period that includes, but is not limited to: achievements; areas for improvement; areas for job-related development; and performance goals for the next period.

- 25.06 Performance appraisal shall include a face-to-face meeting between the supervisor and the employee to discuss the appraisal. This meeting shall take place prior to the supervisor writing the formal appraisal. An employee who becomes uncomfortable in this meeting may stop the meeting until such time as they have Union representation at the meeting.
- 25.07 A performance appraisal that alleges an employee's performance is unsatisfactory shall outline: 1) the reason(s) that the employee's performance is unsatisfactory; and 2) specific recommendations for improvements necessary to achieve satisfactory performance in the area(s) that the supervisor has alleged are unsatisfactory.
- 25.08 If a member is to receive an unsatisfactory review, the Bargaining Unit President or designate will be notified and be present at: 1) the meeting where the member is informed that they are to receive an unsatisfactory rating; and 2) the interim meeting(s) (Article 25.13) scheduled to discuss an unsatisfactory rating.
- 25.09 Once the supervisor has completed the written performance appraisal, the employee shall be given an opportunity to sign the performance appraisal and attach written comments, if so desired, prior to the appraisal being forwarded to the appropriate division head.
- 25.10 If the employee disputes the accuracy or completeness of their performance appraisal they may request a meeting with their supervisor to discuss their performance appraisal prior to the supervisor confirming the appraisal and it being placed in their personnel file.
- 25.11 Employees shall have the right to attach a response or written comments to their performance evaluation. Any such response or written comments will be included with the performance appraisal in the employee's personnel file. It is understood that the supervisor shall be given the opportunity to review any such response or written comment prior to the document being placed in the employee's official personnel file (as described in Article 17 – Personnel File).
- 25.12 By signing the performance appraisal, the employee is indicating a review and discussion have taken place and that they have received a photocopy of the appraisal but does not imply agreement or disagreement on behalf of the employee.
- 25.13 If a member receives an unsatisfactory performance review, they shall not receive a PTR increase, as scheduled, in the year that they receive the unsatisfactory review. In the case of an unsatisfactory review, two (2) interim reviews will be conducted. The first interim review will be conducted three (3) months after the unsatisfactory rating and, if performance remains unsatisfactory, the second interim review will be conducted six (6) months after the initial unsatisfactory rating. If performance improves to a satisfactory level during either of these reviews, the member shall receive their PTR increase retroactive to the date the PTR increase would have normally been received. If performance is still unsatisfactory, the member shall not receive their PTR increase for the year.

Article 26 – Holidays

26.01 Members shall be entitled to a holiday with pay on each of the following days:

|----------------|------------------|
| New Year's Day | Canada Day |
| Family Day | Civic Holiday |
| Good Friday | Labour Day |
| Victoria Day | Thanksgiving Day |

The period beginning at 12:00 noon on Christmas Eve and ending at 11:59 p.m. on December 31.

One (1) additional day shall be observed in conjunction with the Canada Day holiday in order to provide a four (4) day weekend, except when Canada Day falls on a Wednesday, in which case the additional day shall be observed on a day mutually agreeable to the member and the Supervisor. Agreement shall not be unreasonably sought or withheld.

Any Holiday declared by the President of the University.

26.02 Employees working less than thirty-five (35) hours per week will be paid for such holidays on a prorated basis to their normal hours worked. It is understood that seasonal employees are not entitled to holiday pay if the holiday falls during their seasonal layoff.

Article 27 - Paid Vacations

27.01 Every member of the Bargaining Unit shall be granted vacation according to the following schedule:

| Years of Service | Vacation Entitlement |
|-------------------------|-----------------------------|
| Up to one year | 1.25 days/month |
| 1-2 years | 15 working days/annum |
| 3-15 years | 20 working days/annum |
| 16 years | 21 working days/annum |
| 17 years | 22 working days/annum |
| 18 years | 23 working days/annum |
| 19 years | 24 working days/annum |
| 20-29 years | 25 working days/annum |
| 30+ years | 30 working days/annum |

Calendar year of service refers to a full calendar year (i.e., the twelve (12) month period between January and December).

For the purpose of computing vacation time for new members of the Bargaining Unit, the date of January 1st closest to the date of hiring will be used to determine vacation credits, except during the first year of service where the actual hiring date will determine vacation credits.

It is understood that employees who are members of the Bargaining Unit at the time of ratification will maintain their current Vacation Calculation Date.

If a new member of the Bargaining Unit was previously employed by the University immediately before entering this Bargaining Unit, the new member of this Bargaining Unit will have “years of service” (for the purpose of Article 27.01 only) calculated as follows:

Previous employment with the University will be collapsed into full time equivalent service (e.g., one year of full-time employment with the University equals one “year of service”, while one year of half-time employment with the University equals one half “year of service” for the purposes of Article 27.01). “Previous employment” means employment with the University immediately prior to entering this Bargaining Unit without having suffered a break in service of greater than three months.

- 27.02 Members of the Bargaining Unit and their supervisor shall mutually agree on when vacation time shall be taken. The members requested dates for vacation shall not unreasonably withheld.
- 27.03 Vacation may not be carried forward into a subsequent calendar year without the prior written approval of the appropriate supervisor and Human Resources.
- 27.04 A member who leaves the employ of the University for any reason shall have their vacation entitlement for the year prorated to the termination date. If all or part of vacation has not been taken, the balance of such entitlement will be added to the employee’s final pay cheque. Vacation taken but not earned will be deducted from the employee’s final pay cheque.
